

As parents we are considering unplugging the TV due to the continued sexual content, violence, blood and murder advertized everyday on tv.

Superbowl halftime show was difficult to explain!!! My four year old keeps wanting to know what these 4 letter words mean. Dad cover your eyes!! Come on guys, if this stuff happened on the street you could be arrested for indecent exposure or foul language. A strong example needs to be made against Superbowl and other programming!!! Thank you for your actions. Darren
